2015 IMPACT ANALYSIS
International Community Programs

Every visit to a partner community affords an opportunity to learn about our impact in the world. The International Community Programs (ICP) monitoring report provides the current status of all completed projects which were visited in 2015. Our commitment to measure our project-level impact fuels learning from our successes and failures and continually informs improvements to our project delivery model.

202: Total projects reviewed

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Region</th>
<th>Reviewed Projects</th>
<th>Maintained by Community</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Central America &amp; Caribbean</td>
<td>79</td>
<td>61</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>South America</td>
<td>49</td>
<td>28</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Africa</td>
<td>51</td>
<td>39</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Asia &amp; South Pacific</td>
<td>23</td>
<td>18</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

605,000 People impacted by EWB-USA ICP projects

HUMAN IMPACT

PROJECT TYPE IMPACT

- Energy
  - Reviewed projects: 7
  - Highly functional projects: 71%
  - Maintained by community: 71%
  - Community capacity to sustain: 71%

- Agriculture
  - Reviewed projects: 22
  - Highly functional projects: 55%
  - Maintained by community: 50%
  - Community capacity to sustain: 68%

- Structures
  - Reviewed projects: 22
  - Highly functional projects: 82%
  - Maintained by community: 68%
  - Community capacity to sustain: 86%

- Civil Works
  - Reviewed projects: 9
  - Highly functional projects: 67%
  - Maintained by community: 33%
  - Community capacity to sustain: 89%

- Sanitation
  - Reviewed projects: 16
  - Highly functional projects: 63%
  - Maintained by community: 63%
  - Community capacity to sustain: 88%

- Water Supply
  - Reviewed projects: 126
  - Highly functional projects: 82%
  - Maintained by community: 81%
  - Community capacity to sustain: 87%

ROOM FOR GROWTH

- 9 percent of all reviewed projects were non-functional.
- 23 percent of all reviewed projects were not being maintained by community partners.
- 12 percent of all reviewed projects are in communities which currently lack the capacity to sustain them into the future.